

Learning Lunches...

The perfect work/life balance.

90 minute bite-sized sessions to address your training needs in the time it takes to eat a sandwich.

What are Learning Lunches?

It's a classic response – when times are hard the training budget is one of the first things to feel the squeeze. And when it's all hands to the pump, there's not much time to remove people from the day-to-day operation, even if you've managed to hang onto some of your budget.

Yet all the research shows that those organisations who choose to continue with their learning and development plans out-perform those who do not. Offering training to your staff underlines how much you value them, as well as developing capabilities and helping to retain your talented individuals.

Learning Lunches are our solution to help you keep vital training on the menu with negligible disruption to the operation and your finances. Our bite-sized training sessions are manageable portions of expertise, designed to fit in a lunch hour, and held at your offices.

What's your driving force?

If you enjoy our Monthly Motivator, this Learning Lunch is just for you!

What motivates people varies widely from individual to individual; the key to good team work and management is being able to not only recognise exactly what spurs people on to do their best but also how best to harness that.

We will show you tools and models that will help you understand the fundamentals of motivation as well as tips & techniques for motivating yourself and others, enabling you to set achievable goals and reach them.

Choose from a range of topics and invite as many people as you like for just £750 + VAT!
