

Learning Lunches...

The perfect work/life balance.

90 minute bite-sized sessions to address your training needs in the time it takes to eat a sandwich.

What are Learning Lunches?

It's a classic response – when times are hard the training budget is one of the first things to feel the squeeze. And when it's all hands to the pump, there's not much time to remove people from the day-to-day operation, even if you've managed to hang onto some of your budget.

Yet all the research shows that those organisations who choose to continue with their learning and development plans out-perform those who do not. Offering training to your staff underlines how much you value them, as well as developing capabilities and helping to retain your talented individuals.

Learning Lunches are our solution to help you keep vital training on the menu with negligible disruption to the operation and your finances. Our bite-sized training sessions are manageable portions of expertise, designed to fit in a lunch hour, and held at your offices.

All for one & one for all

Understanding diversity is no longer a nice-to-do but a must do; treating everyone with dignity and respect and ensuring that everyone is able to contribute and be heard is the right thing to do, both for the individual and the business.

We will make sure you have the basics of current equalities legislation under your belt, help you understand the ideas behind diversity and show you how prejudice and stereotyping can get in the way of good business.

You will see exactly how diverse we all are, and what the benefits are, as well as gaining the skills to help you challenge and deal with discriminatory behaviour.

Choose from a range of topics and invite as many people as you like for just
